

"THE GAMBLER'S DREAM" AT THE BUTLER TONIGHT

A GOOD SHOW IS PROMISED THE PATRONS OF THIS POPULAR PLAYHOUSE.

Those who wish to see a very good show, full of variety, should go to the Butler theater tonight. The following variety of pictures will be shown, "On Separate Parts," Selig drama, "Done Brown," a rip-roaring comedy by the Gaumont company, "The Gambler's Dream," Pathe. This story shows an old gambler, who, having lost all he has at the Casino, goes home and falls asleep on the library table and there dreams that he has won his money and follows the winner away from the hall and commits a most horrible crime to recover his money. He awakens to find it all a dream, but it has the desired effect, and he promises his wife and little child never again to indulge. "Fairy Land of Frost and Snow." This is a wonderful scenic picture.

Tomorrow will be shown that much-talked-of picture, "Brockton Fair and Horse Show." It should be seen by all who love fine horses. Taken right on the grounds of this famous fair. Thursday will be seen that masterful three-piece production, "Vanity Fair," in three reels, taken from Thackeray's wonderful book.

PROFESSOR TELLS HOW TO TRAIN YOUR BETTER HALF

PHILADELPHIA, Jan. 16.—Professor Patten, 54 years old, and head of economics at Pennsylvania university, announced yesterday that he had completed his philosophic treatise on why people marry and how to keep a wife after she has been caught. Professor Patten has been working on his wife-keeping thesis ever since he lost his three years ago, via Reno. The professor says that people marry in the belief that their existence will be ideal and are disillusioned by woman's complete financial, personal and political freedom. According to Professor Patten, a woman should adhere to the following rules. He tried them on his wife before she went to Reno.

She should rise at 6:30. Prepare breakfast in 15 minutes, leaving the dish washing till night, if necessary.

Get the children off to school. After breakfast work six hours to earn her share of the household expense.

Come home and prepare dinner. Go to bed at 9 in order to get up at 6:30.

Never gossip and have but one aim—simplicity.

COMMISSIONERS HAVE ACTED VERY WISELY

The Wonder News is considerably disturbed because it failed to get the contract for the county printing and advertising, and by publishing distorted figures would have the public believe that the taxpayers' money is being squandered in printing. Such is not true. The Standard and the age were awarded the contract for publishing the county advertising matter at a trifle in advance for the two papers over what the News bid, and when it is considered that almost every taxpayer in the county takes one or the other of the county papers, while the News would hardly claim more than a handful of subscribers outside the little mining camp, the commissioners could not have reasonably done otherwise than award the contract as they did. All legal advertising, whether county, state or national, requires general circulation as its basis, and how the News could be considered in the category is beyond comprehension. In awarding the contract as they did, the commissioners were certain acting for the best interests of the taxpayers of Churchill county—Fallon Eagle.

HIGHWAYMEN AT WORK.

VANCOUVER, B. C., Jan. 15.—Two highwaymen in an automobile held up a crowded Grand View car late last night and shot the conductor when he called for help.

STATE-WIDE SEARCH FOR OAKLAND SLAYER

OAKLAND, Jan. 16.—State-wide search for Joseph Bruener Rider, who Friday last shot and killed his former wife, Mrs. Jessie Bigelow, at her home here, has been instituted by the police department. Bulletins carrying photographs of the alleged murderer and his description were sent yesterday to every large city in the state and to St. Louis, in which place Rider lived some years ago before coming to California.

The police believe that Rider will not permit himself to be captured without attempting another murder or committing suicide. As yet there is no clue to his whereabouts.

TRUCKEE RIVALS IN TOBOGGANING

BEAUTIFUL WHITE MANTLE COVERS MOUNTAINS—MANY ENJOY THEMSELVES.

TRUCKEE (Nevada Co.), Jan. 16.—Winter sports are on in earnest here, and many are coming from all parts of the state to enjoy a frolic in the snow or on the ice. Yesterday proved a particularly enjoyable day, and practically every town in the Sacramento valley was represented among the visitors. Elaborate preparations are being made to entertain the private parties and clubs expected here in February. According to word received here, Truckee can expect a score or more of these parties during the month.

A large force of men is now engaged in making two more toboggan slides on the carnival grounds, and a spectators' gallery has been prepared for the seating of 200 people. It is situated at the base of the mountain, offering a fine view of the grounds. The donkey engine for hauling the people and sleds up the hill has been put in the best of condition, and a price of 10 cents a ride is being charged. Many of the visitors find pleasure in trying the trampoline ski. They find it easy for a few feet, and then stop abruptly to pick themselves up after an awkward fall. All the visitors have cared sufficiently for tobogganing and skiing to keep the mountain-side busy from early in the morning until late at night, with some spectacular spills, all humorous, none serious—for falling into the snow doesn't hurt.

NEWSPAPERS ARE MAKING FINE GAINS OVER MAGAZINES

Five magazines of national prominence, which had a wide circulation, have discontinued publication in the last few months. The magazines referred to are Human Life, Success, National Post, Hampton's Magazine and The Columbian, the last two having been amalgamated. The gradual tendency of great advertisers to draw away from the magazines and do business with the newspapers is ascribed for the failure of the periodicals. In the east a vigorous conflict is going on between newspapers and magazines to convince the public as to which is the superior advertising medium. With every few ceptions, the newspapers seem to be getting the best of the contest.

RUMOR SAYS SALT LAKE ROAD HAS BEEN SOLD

From Los Angeles comes persistently the rumor that the Salt Lake road is to be sold to the Harriman lines. It continues throughout railroad and banking circles and is now being given general credence by many railroad officials, although there is a positive denial from the Salt Lake people that a deal has just been closed.

"There is absolutely nothing in the report that the Salt Lake has been sold," said J. Ross Clark, vice president of the company. "The ownership of the Salt Lake is just the same as it always has been."

Clark makes no denial of the statement that a deal is pending. Exactly how much stock the Harriman interests already own is not known, but it has always been claimed that Senator W. A. Clark owned and controlled the majority of the stock—51 per cent, according to common report.

The rumor now current is that the Oregon Short Line seeks the Salt Lake road for an entrance of the Harriman lines into Southern California direct from the east.

At the time of the recent retrenchment orders, it was the belief of Salt Lake men that the Union Pacific was to take the line over, but the Harriman interests would be served practically the same with either the Oregon Short Line or Union Pacific management in control.

GOVERNOR OF NEW YORK FAVORS 10-ROUND BOUTS

ALBANY, N. Y., Jan. 16.—Although Governor Dix has recommended the repeal of the Frawley boxing law, which legalized fistie bouts in this state, the governor is quoted as saying that his object was not to abolish boxing entirely in this state, but to bring it under stricter regulations. The governor favors the enactment of a new law in which every clause shall be specific, even down to the exact weight of the gloves which the men wear in the ring. He believes ten rounds is long enough for a bout and has intimated that he would favor even a shorter number.

POTATOES FROZEN.

Some weeks ago B. Bianchi, a Mason Valley potato raiser, had a carload of potatoes inspected by the horticultural representative of California for eel worms. The potatoes were found to be all right, but it was some few days before the potatoes were shipped to Sacramento. When they arrived there Bianchi was notified by wire by the commission house that the potatoes frozen, and asked what disposition should be made of them. He did not answer but took the train for Sacramento. Arriving there he found the carload of spuds, and instead of being frozen, they were so warm that they had started sprout. There was no eel worm in them, they were not frozen, and the only thing wrong with them was a few sprouts that it would have taken a few hours to rub off. He sold the spuds to other parties, who were mighty glad to get them. This is another instance of how California people love to do business with Nevadans—Yerington

OLD MAN INSULTS VISITING BRITON

PIONEER REBUFS FRIENDLY ADVANCES OF A FAMOUS NOVELIST.

PRESCOTT, Ariz., Jan. 16.—Sir Gilbert Parker, the English novelist and member of parliament, who has been visiting here, met with an unique rebuff at the Arizona Pioneer home. All the inmates of the home, many of them grizzled old veterans of the exciting days of Arizona, had been presented to the novelist, excepting James O'Donnell, one of the earliest white men of the state. When O'Donnell was introduced, he asked:

"Are you English?"

"Yes," replied the visitor.

"Then I won't shake hands," announced O'Donnell. "I am Irish."

"But I'm half Irish myself," protested Parker. "Shake hands."

"I will never shake hands as long as there is a drop of English blood in your veins," roared the old pioneer.

Parker laughed good naturedly, saying he would have a new story for T. P. O'Connor, Major Dorn, superintendent of the home, has reported the incident to the governor of the state.
